

JEANNE SCHULZE

Transformational Change Consulting and Coaching

Lominger International Associate Jeanne Schulze is president of Jeanne Schulze and Associates, LLC, a firm specializing in organization effectiveness, executive and team consulting and coaching. Jeanne has over 30 years of business experience in the private, public and not-for-profit sectors. Her practice has covered an expanse of third-world community economic development in Bangalore, India to facilitating global change strategies in the high tech and food production industries in the US, Europe and Asia. She is a skilled designer and implementer with expertise in executive coaching, 360° feedback, leadership development, talent/succession management systems, high performance work systems, and change and transition management.

Jeanne has served internally in leadership and consulting positions for both large and medium size companies including Cargill, Honeywell, Control Data and Del Webb Corporation. To meet the needs of Cargill leaders of the future, Jeanne facilitated internal clients and HR in the design and strategy development for building the Leadership Pipeline using integrated competency based tools and processes. At Del Webb, she architected the first Leadership Institute unique to the master planned home building industry using the Lominger Suite of tools. As an internal organization development consultant at Honeywell, she designed and facilitated change management strategies for the global customer support service center system, team infrastructures for the building of the Boeing 777 avionics systems and quality improvement based teams for Industrial Controls.

The diversity of her private consulting practice encompasses high tech, defense, home building, finance, city government and manufacturing industries. Her enthusiastic systems approach and the use of researched based tools ensures that she consistently engages both the hearts and minds of leaders and their teams in building sustainable organizational, team and leadership capability.

Feedback from her clients highlights her effectiveness in technology and knowledge transfer to all levels of the organization.

Jeanne received her Masters degree in Training and Development and Bachelors degree in Music Education from the University of Minnesota. She has continued to develop her expertise with certifications in Gestalt Organizational Systems Development and Gestalt Therapy training through the Gestalt Institutes of Cleveland, Phoenix and the Gestalt International Study Center of Cape Cod. Jeanne is certified in the complete LEADERSHIP ARCHITECT® Suite of tools. Additional certifications include The Hudson Institute of Santa Barbara Coaching Certificate, MBTI, Emotional Intelligence and Hogan Assessments.
